Seattle Pacific University is a premier Christian university founded in 1891 with a vision to engage the culture and bring about positive change in the world through a non-sectarian approach to education.

With Seattle as the fastest growing tech hub in the United States, the future is happening here. From this global epicenter, Seattle Pacific University equips students for success through 29 graduate programs and more than 69 undergraduate programs. Our students grow in skill and have valuable work experience opportunities in the Seattle area at companies like Amazon, Google, Microsoft, Boeing, and Nordstrom.

Every day stepping foot on campus, I'm reminded of what a privilege it is to pursue higher education. I know that my education is not just for me, but for my entire community.

The Global Development major has given me a wider perspective on how I can use economics, politics and social work to serve the people who have helped me get here. I look forward to wherever my education empowers me to go, whether it is here in the States or in Mexico.
