

Undergraduate Gateway Program

As one of America's top universities, Duquesne University provides a well-rounded education that challenges students academically while nourishing their well-being and ethical development.

#119

2019 National Universities
ranking by U.S. News &
World Report

#40

2019 Best Value
Schools by U.S. News
& World Report

In the Best
384

Colleges 2019 by
The Princeton Review

The Gateway Program is designed to help international students prepare for their undergraduate degree. The program aims to admit international students while improving their academic English skills with minimum requirements.

Begin English course work immediately in Summer, Fall and Spring.

International Programs

How the Gateway Program Works?

Multiple entry points are determined by students' English proficiency score.

Students without English proficiency scores can test on campus and be placed in the appropriate Gateway level.

Graduates of Duquesne University work in:

- BNY Mellon
- University of Pittsburgh Medical Center
- US Steel
- ESPN
- PricewaterhouseCoopers
- Pittsburgh Public Schools
- Teach for America
- American Eagle Outfitters
- Alcoa
- Bayer
- Ernst & Young
- PNC
- Deloitte

$5,000-$18,000
Merit-based scholarship
available per year