IMPORTANT INFORMATION

ELI PROGRAM COSTS

Full-Time Tuition:	$2,300 per 7-week session* $4,600 per 15-week semester* $3,450 per 8-week extra-intensive summer semester*
UMBC Health Insurance:	$41 per week (estimate)
Campus Housing and Meals:	$5,500 per 15-week semester (estimate)
Personal Expenses:	$1,000 per 7-week session (estimate)

* Tuition is due in full before classes begin.

HOUSING

ELI students may live on or off campus. On-campus housing is popular and limited. It is best to apply eight (8) weeks or more before your ELI start date. Students will receive a housing application and information in the ELI admissions packet. (Also see: www.umbc.edu/eli/oncampus)

VISA

Most students will require an F-1 visa to study in the U.S. Students will receive visa information in the ELI admissions packet.

HEALTH INSURANCE

ELI students in F-1 visa status must purchase UMBC health insurance. Health care is not nationalized in the U.S., so it is more expensive than in many other countries. It is very important that students have appropriate insurance coverage. Students will receive information about UMBC student health insurance in the ELI admissions packet.

Note: All above information is subject to change.

SIGNATURE

Please answer the following questions.

- Have you ever been found responsible for a disciplinary violation at any educational institution you have attended from the 9th grade (or the international equivalent) forward, whether related to academic misconduct or behavioral misconduct that resulted in a disciplinary action?
