Essay Statements

When you previously applied to Seattle Pacific you were asked to write about the topic below. Please respond again as you may have new thoughts or feelings since you last applied. Your answer can either match or differ from what you wrote previously.

At Seattle Pacific, we encourage all students to explore or go deeper in Christian faith and to be inspired to make a difference. SPU's vision means that you can pursue an education that helps you change the world for the better. How does Seattle Pacific's vision align with your desires for college? How does your own faith perspective or personal story intersect with our vision? (250-650 words. You may use a separate sheet.)

Since you first applied to Seattle Pacific University or were last enrolled at Seattle Pacific University, what circumstances have changed, and how are you better prepared to accomplish your educational and personal goals? (250-650 words. You may use a separate sheet.)
